

Hi everyone, Edith stole the show at this year's Cannonball Spree! Like last year, I was ahead of all the cars, though for a much shorter period of time this year before most of them passed me. I took home 4 awards...more awards than any other driver! In fact, Kaptin Kaos, who was with me in the car, also won an award, so that's 5 awards for one car's presence at the event!

I was fortunate enough to be able to assist in some of the musical entertainment at the event, which I hope you'll enjoy as the photos and video become available on the site. Matt, the guy who runs the local Ghostbusters club, proposed to Stephanie, the gal who puts on the Cannonball, at the award ceremony. And she accepted! Sparks were flying, she was crying (presumably tears of joy). What a terrific event this was!

Also in the car with Kaptin Kaos and myself was the mother of a gal in the event crew. Between the three of us, we had the perfect energy for a smashing good time! Ok, back to editing, sorting and such. To see how I decorated Edith and myself, check out my new site at: www.ShagMobile.com
